BOOTLEGGER SENT TO THE STATE FARM

Moody Bridgewater, 45, of Ripley Township, Pleads Guilty in Circuit Court

ALSO FINED $100 AND COSTS

Quart of Liquor, Two Empty Four-gallon Jugs and Small Empty Bottles Found

Moody Bridgewater, age 45 years, a resident of Ripley township, was arrested Thursday afternoon after a search of his premises revealed a quart of white mule, and what was said to be additional evidence of bootlegging, and this morning he was arraigned before Judge Sparks, and received a fine of $100 and costs, and a sentence of 60 days at the state farm.

The charge against him was for unlawful possession with the purpose of a sale.

Prosecutor Gates Ketchum received a "tip" from residents in that vicinity, that the man was suspected of supplying the trade in that community, and a search warrant was issued yesterday.

Sheriff Hunt and deputies, Ed Spradling and Russell Glendenning, made the trip to the farm, which is located three miles northwest of Carthage, and near Charlottesville. After a long search, the quart of liquor was found, and other evidence confiscated included two empty four-gallon jugs, a quantity of smaller empty bottles, and a supply of corks.

A portion of the loot was found hidden in the straw stack, according to the officers. The man was placed under arrest and brought to jail late yesterday.

According to the officers, the man had been suspected for several months of dealing in liquor, and the trap was set for him.

The prisoner told the sheriff that he had formerly lived in Hancock county, and had resided in Rush county, on the farm, for only a few months, and that prior to moving to Indiana he had been in a western state.

The fine and costs, amounting to $130, together with the sentence will mean 190 days at the state farm, if it is not paid.

The man is married, and besides the wife, leaves two small children at home.

WITNESSES FATAL FIRE AT WICHITA

Cecil L. Clark, Formerly of This City, Lives Across Street From Getto Building

CLARKS REPORTED MISSING

Cecil L. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Clark and brother of Mrs. Charles Offutt of this city who lives at Wichita, Kansas, resides in an apartment house located directly across the street from the Getto building, which was destroyed by a fire that took a heavy toll of lives.

A man and his wife named Clark were reported missing after the fire and the former Rushville man immediately wired his parents that he was safe, fearing the news would reach them and that they would believe he had been burned in the fire.

Mr. Clark was awakened by the light from the blaze in his room and turned in the alarm. A copy of the Wichita Daily Eagle, received here today, contains a graphic account of the fire given by Mr. Clark, who said that he shall never forget the sight that greeted his eyes as he watched the people trapped on the top floors, try to reach safety.

The first floor of the building was occupied by business establishments and the three upper floors were used as a rooming house.

Expected Rush County Will be Awarded a Penant for Showing Made in Seal Sale

The Rush County Tuberculosis association will be represented by Mrs. T. M. Green at the two-day state tuberculosis conference which will be held in Indianapolis at the Lincoln hotel next Tuesday and Wednesday. Miss Anna Bohannon will also likely attend some of it not all of the sessions.

The conference will begin on Tuesday morning with an address by the president, Dr. George T. McCoy of Columbus, who will be followed by Dr. C. H. Good of Huntington, president of the Indiana State Medical association. Penants to those who made good records during the recent Seal Sale will be awarded at this session.

It is expected that the Rush county association will be awarded a pennant, although no word has been received here to that effect. The Rush county sale, which was conducted by the Psi Iota Xi sorority, passed the goal of $1,800, which was the largest quota ever apportioned to Rush county.

The chief speakers will be Dr. J. S. Pritchard, of Battle Creek, Michigan, and Dr. R. H. Hayes of Chicago, both well known tuberculosis specialists. The Conference will be held under the auspices of the Indiana Tuberculosis Association and

EXPLOSION IN STOVE CAUSES STUDIO FIRE

Lowell Collyer Suffers Loss Estimated At $150 To Equipment This Morning

COVERED WITH INSURANCE

An explosion in a soft coal heating stove, located in the front room of the Lowell Collyer photograph studio, 241 1/2 North Main street, set fire to the interior of the room this morning shortly before ten o'clock, and damage estimated at $150 resulted.

The studio, which is located above the McIntyre shoe store, was almost instantaneously set on fire when the stove belched forth fire, igniting a large canvass frame, setting fire to the rug and window draperies. Mr. Collyer and Gordon Bennett, his assistant, were in the room at the time but escaped injuries.

The loss is confined to the rug and furnishings, and exposed plates. The finishing department of the studio is located in another room across the hallway. A valuable kodak was removed, and other canvass screens were taken out.

The fire department was called over the telephone, and all three divisions made a quick run, and the fire was extinguished with chemical, which saved further loss from water. Insurance amounting to $1000 is believed to cover Mr. Collyer's loss which he estimated at between $150 and $200.

BELIEF, UNBELIEF WORLD'S GREATEST

SERMON BY W. McCLEAN WORK

Special Meetings at United Presbyterian Church Close Tonight—A Record Crowd

Before the largest crowd which has thus far attended the services at the United Presbyterian Church, the Rev. W. McClean Work of Richmond preached on "The Two Greatest Wonders in the World", Thursday night.

Tonight will be the last of the series of sermons to be preached here by the Richmond pastor and every effort is being made by the local congregation to have a record crowd at the services.

The preacher took two texts in his Thursday night sermon, the first from Matthew 8:10 "And He marvelled and said I have not seen such great faith no not in Israel." The second from Mark 6:6, "And He marvelled at their unbelief." He said the two greatest wonders of the world are belief and unbelief.

"Jesus marveled," said the speaker, "at the faith of the Roman centurion who came to Him asking his servant be healed. The first wonder of this belief was the source from which it came. It was a man entirely outside the line of the Jewish people, and alien to the tribal promises and covenants of Hebrew. In the second place his belief was wonderful because of the surroundings of the man who expressed the faith. He had been reared in militaristic Rome whose citizens looked upon the commanders of armies as the flower of civilization. He gives it as one of his credentials that he has the power of issuing orders and having them obeyed. And yet he believes in a man who has no man to draw a sword in his defense, no treasury upon which he can levy, no political organization to be summoned to his assistance.

"But perhaps the greatest wonder

TENTATIVE PLANS FOR SUMMER OUTING

Made at Meeting of Republican Editorial Association Meeting Held Thursday

TO BE HELD AT SOUTH BEND

Tentative plans were made for the summer outing of the Indiana Republican Editorial association, at a meeting of the special committee appointed for the purpose, which was held in Indianapolis Thursday. MANY DEAD IN 2 MINE DISASTERS

Explosions at Dawson, N. M., and Vancouver, B. C., Take Heavy Toll of Miners Lives

123 MEN ENTOMBED AT DAWSON

Forty Known Dead at Cumberland Coal Mine on Vancouver Island—28 Bodies Recovered

(By United Press)

Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 9.—Forty are known dead in the explosion in the Cumberland coal mine on Vancouver Island, according to reports reaching Vancouver today.

Rescue workers estimated that probably the dead list would not exceed forty-five. Up to 9:30 a. m. twenty-eight bodies have been recovered. Twelve others were known to have lost their lives, while five additional who were missing were believed dead.

Seventeen other men were believed entombed and little hope was held out that they would be rescued alive.

The bodies reported recovered were said to have included 20 whites and 8 Orientals.

The explosion occurred in No. 4 mine of the Canadian Collieries at Cumberland, B. C., just after the night shift had gone on duty.

Owing to poor communications, reports of the disaster and of the progress of rescue work were slow coming in.

Dawson, N. Mex., Feb. 9.—Four bodies had been recovered at 6 a. m. from Phelps-Dodson Dawson mine No. 4, where 123 men were entombed by an explosion late yesterday. Mine officials feared that all had perished.

The bodies recovered were found near the main entrance which had been wrecked by the blast.

Dawson is one of the largest coal mining camps in the west. Four mines were operated in the vicinity of 5,000.

One hundred and fifty rescue workers who toiled through the night were still about a mile from where the other 118 men in the mine were working when the blast wrecked the workings. Rescue workers hoped to reach the spot during the morning.

The one hope of finding the men alive, lay in the possibility that they were able to wall up a room to protect against the deadly gasses which accumulated following the blast.

The ventilation system was re-established during the night and rapidly cleared the air.

Physicians and nurses were rushed here from surrounding towns.

A call was sent to Raton for coffins.

Wives and children of the entombed men, mostly foreigners, stood

Allied Naval Officers and Turkish Commander at Smyrna Agree to Maintain Same Status

RIGHT OF TURKS DISPUTED

American and Allied Governments Notified Harbor is Mined—Warships Afraid to Move

(By United Press)

Constantinople, Feb. 9.—Allied naval officials and the Turkish commander at Smyrna have agreed that status will be maintained until the Turkish right to order foreign warships from the harbor has been settled by diplomatic means, according to dispatches from Smyrna received here late today.

The allied squadron is remaining in the harbor, despite the Turkish order to depart at once.

Notice has been served on the Turkish commander that the British war ships are ready to commence firing if attacked.

The Turks admittedly have mined the harbor so that it would be exceedingly dangerous for the vessels to attempt to move without knowing the location of the mines.

When a demand was made on the Turkish commander that he sweep up these mines, he flatly refused, adding that the allied naval officers would have to hire Turkish pilots to guide them out of the harbor.

According to the best information here the only American war vessel in Smyrna harbor is a destroyer less than 1000 tons.

By A. L. BRADFORD
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Feb. 9.—The American and allied governments have received a warning from Nationalist Turkey that the waters of Smyrna where allied warships have been ordered out of the harbor under a Turkish ultimatum are mined against attack from the sea.

PROTEST IS PUT IN HOUSE JOURNAL

Tactics Of Speaker Raymond Morgan And Republicans Condemned By Democratic Minority

NO OBJECTIONS BY MAJORITY

Democratic Representatives Prepared To Leave Legislature Again If Necessary They Say

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 9.—Tactics of Speaker Raymond Morgan and leaders of the republican majority in railroading amendments to the appropriation bill was in violation of the constitution and conducive to anarchy, the democratic minority of the state house of representatives declared today in a protest read into the records of the house.

With the reading of the protest and its acceptance by Speaker Morgan as part of the journal, the fight which resulted in the democrats bolting the house Thursday afternoon, died down as rapidly as it had arisen. It is expected to flare up again when the appropriation bill comes up for third reading.

The democrats are prepared to leave the legislature if their objections are subjected to the partisan steam-roller as they were yesterday when the two million dollar request of Governor McCray for completing the reformatory was cut to $1,500,000.

When the speaker's gavel called the house to order the democrats were in caucus at a hotel planning their next move. No effort was made to convene until 10:20 when the democratic members filed in together.

The protest was framed in the caucuses and it was reported they planned to walk out again if tactics of yesterday were resorted to.

"We denounce in unmeasurable terms such high-handed methods and declare that they are destructive of free government and conducive to anarchy," the protest read.

"We deplore such action in the name of the people of the state of Indiana to whom we submit our cause. We register this our solemn protest and ask that shame be entered upon the records of the journal of the house of representatives of the 73rd general assembly."

When minority leader Gottschalk presented the protest, Speaker Morgan averted a continuance of the fight by accepting it with this comment, "You democrats have a right to file a protest."

Routine business proceeded then.

The marriage and divorce bill introduced in the house by Elizabeth Rainey, only woman member, was killed today on second reading.

The house voted, 45 to 41, to

POSTPONES SCALING WALLS TILL SATURDAY

Jack Williams, "The Human Fly," Calls Off Exhibition On Account Of Small Crowd

WEATHER ALSO UNFAVORABLE

The exhibition of Jack Williams, "The Human Fly," who announced he would scale the walls of the court house Thursday evening, was postponed on account of the condition of the weather and size of the crowd, until Saturday night at seven o'clock.

Williams climbed the walls of the McFarland hotel in Connersville Wednesday night and came here Thursday morning, announcing that he would climb from the ground to the ball on the flag pole atop the courthouse tower last night at seven o'clock. Shortly before seven o'clock rain began to fall and not many people ventured out to witness the exhibition. Williams then decided to postpone the feat until Saturday night, when he hopes the crowd will be larger and the weather more favorable.

The high school band which will receive one-fourth of the proceeds from a collection that will be taken, was on hand last night and played a few selections.

Williams went to Shelbyville today and will climb the walls of a building there tonight.

Many of the families whose loved one were entombed by the blast had husbands and sons in the disaster at the Stag-Canyon coal mine near here October 21, 1918 which claimed 263 lives. Father of Mildred Eric Requests
Warrant After Strange Story

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 9.—A warrant for the arrest of Mildred Eric, who claimed she was kidnapped and slashed by three missing men, was issued by police today on request of the girl's father. Disorderly conduct was charged.

The girl whose body was marked by ten crosses apparently made with a penknife had disappeared when police caught her at a rooming house. The father said Mildred recently had grown beyond his control and he thought by taking court action he would be able to regain his correction over the girl.

Mildred in her story to the physician said she was threatened by a secret organization for giving up the religion in which she was reared.

AMUSEMENTS

Champion Skater Entertains

Adelaide D'Vorak, worlds champion trick and fancy skater, entertained a large and enthusiastic audience last evening at the Rollo Rink. This diversion put on by the management as a treat for their regular patrons and as a means of enlightening the general public as to the possibilities of roller skating, will be repeated tonight at the dance and Saturday evening between sessions of skating. The candle dance pronounced by all who witnessed it as something entirely new, will be repeated at each performance but the remainder of the program will be different.

TO ORGANIZED SCOUT TROOP

Everybody reads the stories by Albert Payson Terhune in the Saturday evening post. This famous author's works are now being shown in Motion pictures and one of the first companies to secure the rights to these stories have been the W. M. Smith Productions, Inc. "The Lariat Thrower" is the title of the story which originally ran in the Argosy magazine. The Smith Productions Company have reproduced the story with an all star cast, which includes Franklin Farnum, Al Hart, Francis Ford, "Shorty" Hamilton and Peggy O'Day. "The Lariat Thrower" is a story of the new west, however, the story opens in the east, but quickly travels to the great vast spaces. The entire company was transported to Oklahoma, so the proper scenes mentioned in the story could be used. "The Lariat Thrower" will be seen Saturday at the Mystic. The management personally guarantees this picture to be one that will appeal to all of the family.

O ORGANIZED SCOUT TROOP

A Boy Scout troop will be organized in Glenwood next week, and a meeting has been called for next Thursday night, February 15, at the Methodist church in Glenwood. All boys who are interested in the organization are requested to attend the meeting with their parents, and the movement will be explained by Prof. Shockley and Dr. Reckols of Connersville.

More "Cuss Words" Uttered
In December Than Other Months

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 9.—More "cuss words" are uttered in December than in any other month of the year, statistics for 1922, in city court here showed today.

Twelve convictions on profanity charges were obtained during December. There were only forty-seven to distribute through the other eleven months or an average of more than four each month.

The statistics show that speeders led a precarious life, with 1,071 convictions on that charge. This was partly due to Mayor Lew Shank's war against speeders.

More convictions were made on the charge of drunkenness than any other. They totalled 1,957. Next came blind tiger convictions totaling 1,766. Blind tiger cases increased toward the last of the year and reached 272 in December.

Only 450 were convicted on charges of gambling.

SALVATION:—If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved—Romans 10:9.

Mary and Doug

Mary Pickford and her husband, Douglas Fairbanks, who recently defied the producers of motion pictures and who have declared their intentions of putting on their own productions, presumably to make more money, in view of the fact that they have only a few millions laid by, have gone a step further in their uprising against the powers that be in filmland.

Mary has a desire to play Marguerite in "Faust" and folks with a million or two generally have their own way. The critics and the producers whose aim for the motion picture is to make it a distinct medium of artistic expression, have been aroused to righteous indignation because they think Goethe's drama will be sacrificed to the movie tradition of doing things as they should be done.

Too often the patron of a motion picture theatre goes to a show, based on a famous novel or literary work, with the anticipation of an hour or two of real enjoyment, because of having read the story, only to be keenly disappointed by the distortions and changes of the director to meet the wishes of the stars.

Thus the critics are worried about Mary's forthcoming production of "Faust". She has obtained Ernest Lubitsch, famous German director, to produce it and she will write her own version of the drama to make Marguerite a famous role. One critic goes so far as to say he would safely wager that Mary never read "Faust", otherwise she in particular would not attempt to adapt it to her own purpose.

Meantime, demands from admirers that Mary play Juliet in a wonderful motion picture production of "Romeo and Juliet" are swelling, according to the reports from many sources.

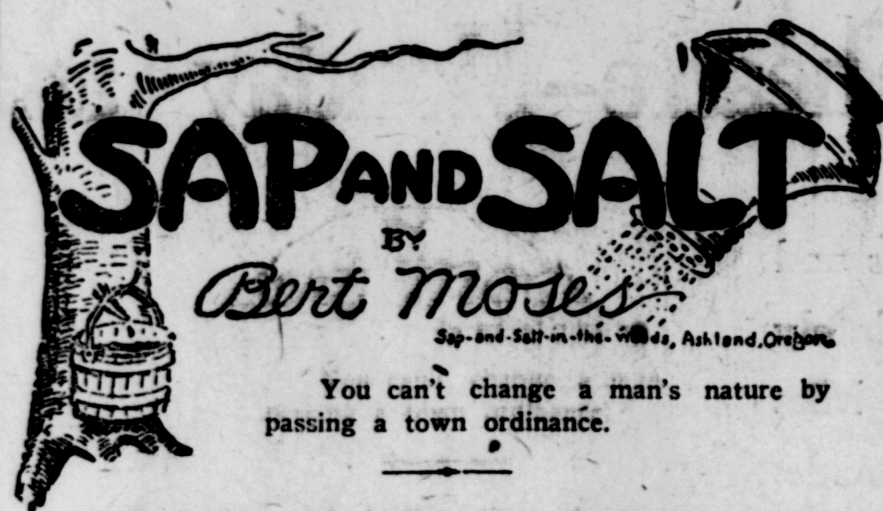

The desire to see America's sweetheart as the most famous girl lover of literature apparently crystallized when Mary announced she wanted to play Marguerite in "Faust". A storm of disapproval broke. Mary's worshippers dislike the idea that she might subjugate her charm to a minor role. Scholars and critics will object should Goethe's masterpiece be mangled to make Marguerite a dominating figure.

The New York Daily News editorially appealed to Will H. Hays, suggesting that he intercede with Mary Pickford to appear as Juliet.

"Mary would be adorable as Juliet", declared Ferdinand Earle, internationally famed artist. However he welcomed Miss Pickford as a rival should she compete with his own screen translation of "Faust".

The Chicago Tribune made an editorial plea for "Romeo and Juliet" in the films, and nominates Mary Pickford as the one eminently desirable screen artist for the role. The Tribune further proposed that Douglas Fairbanks play Romeo, and Rodolph Valentino play Mercutio.

"Mary Pickford as Juliet, we hazard the prediction," the editorial says, "would prove an unforgettable memory of a generation of all the people and she would make Shakespeare to us all what he has come to be only a fortunate few, the master magician of the theatre."

It is up to Mary's admirers. If enough of them assure her that they want her as Juliet, she will undoubtedly produce that great love story instead of the ill-chosen "Faust".

It was with a shock that the people of this community heard of the sad and untimely death of the doctor yesterday, when he was run down shortly after eleven o'clock at the Main street crossing on the C. H. & D. railroad, by a train and instantly killed.

Income Tax Facts

NO. 8.

A person may receive for his services compensation other than money that is subject to the income tax. The fair market value of the thing taken in payment is the amount to be included as income. For example if a clerk in a grocery store receives as part of his wages groceries or provisions the value of the merchandise must be reported by him as income. Compensation paid an employee of a corporation in shares of stock is to be treated as if the corporation sold the stock for its market value and paid him in cash.

Promissory notes received in payment for services and not merely as security for payment constitute income to the amount of their fair market value. A taxpayer receiving as compensation a note for its face value at maturity, but not bearing interest may treat an income as of the time of receipt the fair discounted value of the note at such time. If the payments are met as they become due, there should be included as income in respect to each such payment so much thereof as represents recovery for the discount deducted.

Board and lodging when furnished as compensation for services must be reported as income. Thus, a hotel clerk who is given a room and meals as part payment for his services must report the fair value of such in his income tax return.

Under regulations of the Public Health Service officers are entitled to quarters light, and heat, and employees such as attendants, dietitians, interns, nurses and reconstruction aides are entitled to quarters subsistence, and laundry. The value of such constitutes income to the officers and employees, and must be returned by them as income for the year in which received.

The Hodge - Podge
By a Paragrapher with a Soul

There are still a few kings left, but the heirs to the throne seem to get the most publicity.

A New York firm is advertising "rental" of desirable female companions for dinner and the theatre, for lonely men in the metropolis, but nothing is said about who pays for the dinner and theatre tickets.

The European situation remains about the same, which means that nobody knows what it really means.

Since the backdown of the Angora government, we know where that slang phrase "turkey" originated.

The fool needs no advertising.

We don't agree with the critic who says that not all men are grafters because all do not have a chance.

Science in surgery and electricity have advanced greatly during the past fifty years, but treatment of disease by old-fashioned root and herb medicines, has never been improved upon. The leader of them all is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which after fifty years of success is today recognized as the standard remedy for female ills and sold everywhere for that purpose. Replies to a questionnaire recently sent out to 50,000 women by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., of Lynn Mass., proved that it benefits 98 out of every 100 women who try it. BOXING CONTESTS BEING ARRANGED

Many Important Matches Will Be Staged in Indianapolis During Next Six Months

FIRST SET FOR TUESDAY

Pal Moore Will Meet Bud Taylor In Main Bout—Busy Card Is Being Made Out Now

By HEZE CLARK
(Written for United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 9.—A number of important boxing contests are being planned by the Washington A. C. and the American A. C. to be staged in Indianapolis during the next six months. Steve Harter, is match maker for the Washington A. C. and Nate Farb is match maker for the American A. C.

On February 3, Pal Moore of Memphis will meet Bud Taylor of Terre Haute in the main go of Harter's boxing show at Tomlinson hall here. Two other good bouts are on the card.

Farb's next boxing show will be on February 26. While the complete card has not been announced it is known that Joe Lynch, bantam weight champion of the world, will be the head liner. Farb plans to match the winner of the Moore-Taylor bout with Lynch.

Farb also plans to match Riche Mitchell and Charley White, two lightweight contenders, early in April. He wishes to stage this match at the American Association baseball park soon after the regular hal season starts.

Open air bouts proved popular in Indianapolis last year and attracted large crowds of fans from all parts of the state.

There seems to be a chance that Poycho Villa, flyweight title holder, may appear in Indianapolis July 4, meeting Bud Taylor. This match was announced for Milwaukee some weeks ago, but an injury to the champion caused the bout to be postponed.

Louis Lavell, of Anderson, the popular lightweight will be seen in action as soon as his arm has recovered from the injury he sustained in the bout with Johnny Lucas. Farb offered Lavell a chance to box in Indianapolis, his opponent being any one of the following: Bud Christiana, K. O. Jeakle or K. O. Mars. The latter is the only lightweight who ever knocked Johnny Kilbane, a featherweight champion of the world, off his feet. He did that in a ball park at Cincinnati.

Fred Wildy, match maker for the Terre Haute Athletic Club, is looking for an opponent for Bud Perrill. This club will stage a boxing show at Terre Haute February 22. Wildy is considering matching Perrill with Paul Mathea of Detroit who is now

Tinkering With Baseball Rules

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 9.—No mounted umpires will be riding around the gardens in the major league baseball parks next season. The possibility of putting the arbiters on steeds hadn't been disclosed until some one advanced the question as to how the umpires could rule on a hit under Ban Johnson's zone system for home runs.

Ban's new ideas about the elimination of the freak home run have been passed up, according to Commissioner Landis, and since they are dead numbers it is not necessary to get out the charts and blue prints and explain how Ban wanted to make a home run what it was when it wasn't.

Briefly it was a proposal to paint lines or zones around the parks. Balls hit between the closest lines would be doubles, etc.

The more that radical proposals are made to change the baseball rules, the more it becomes evident that no changes are needed.

As long as the magnates are building parks with home run fields, it is not consistent to adopt rules to make the clouts harder.

After all, as Commissioner Landis says, it is apparent from the attendance figures that the fans like home runs. The club owners don't care anything about home runs or baseball. They are selling something for profit and if the customers would pay to see Uncle Tom's Cabin every day the mags would buy the hounds and ice.

During the winter meetings, when all kinds of amendments for the present code and new clauses were being discussed, "Cap" Huston, the popular owner of the New York Yankees and one of the best examples in baseball of what most club owners are not, remarked: "I don't believe in passing any rules that no one intends to observe."

He was talking about raising the player limit to twenty-five.

"What's the use to have any player limit?" he asked. "They all cheat and you got to cheat back if you don't want to get left behind. If we could put a hundred players under option, some of them would sneak in an extra five. If this business has to be cutthroat, it ought to be free-for-all, with everything wild and then no one could howl."

KEEP MAILIN' 'EM TO HITTIN'

Richmond is still figuring on taking the state tourney. We admit that the Morton high school has a good team, but they haven't played the best ones yet, and the only way to figure their standing is to see how they stack up against real teams. Richmond is somewhat like Elwood. They do a lot of claiming, but have not played anyone yet.

Shelbyville plays at Greensburg tonight. We kinda got an idea that Shelbyville will win. If they don't we wonder what their alibi will be.

THE REFEREE SAID THAT ARLINGTON WON

A perfectly good basketball game gone wrong. The other night the Shelbyville Elks played at Arlington. Arlington said they won, but Shelbyville comes along, and claims the game. They both couldn't win, of course. Hittin' 'em was surprised to think that Shelbyville would actually claim that game. They seem to have some sort of a grudge against Rush county teams. It's funny, figures don't lie, but liars figure.

WE'D CALL THIS A PINK ELEPHANT

Dope this year is a queer animal. Just lookie here: Vincennes only beat Anderson two points; Anderson in turn defeated Marion one point. Then Marion beat Newcastle last week by a seven point margin, while on the night before Rushville swamped Newcastle 13 points. That knocks 'em all cold, and on the "dope" ladder, Rushville ought to rank in first place, putting them several points ahead of Vincennes.

The high school varsity took the Merits down the line Wednesday night to the tune of 64 to 19 in a practice game. If the team shows the same form tonight, they should romp off with Cathedral.

A high school contributor says: "Just wait until the varsity steps out wearing the new service sweaters for this year and more than one may need some colored glasses to withstand the shock that they will receive. The brightest red that can be found is going to be selected for the color."

HERE'S WHAT THEY DID WITH THE CUP

Dear Hittin' 'em—"Apropos your remark that you haven't heard what Milroy did with her up, we crave to say that we straightway built a cupboard for same. Who wouldn't? "We are proud of it too, that is to say, both the cup and cupboard. "We promised to see John Geraghty after Milroy and Webb engaged in deadly battle but didn't feel like bearding the lion in his den. We'll talk it over Saturday, Doctor Geraghty! Signed, R. L. P. Milroy.

CATHEDRAL INVADES RUSHVILLE TONIGHT

Indianapolis High School Team, Defeated By Locals At Home, Plays This Evening

HAS IMPROVED SINCE THEN

The Cathedral high school of Indianapolis will invade Rushville tonight for a game of basketball with the local team and although Rushville won out over them several weeks ago, by a 3 point margin, yet the contest is expected to be a good one. The Indianapolis team has improved greatly, and has been hitting a fast pace recently.

The visiting team will probably line-up with Kelly and Riley at forwards; Royse at center; Dougherty and Dickie at guards. The other three members of their squad will consist of Costello, McGowan and O'Connor. The Rushville team will probably start with Hilligoss and Newbold at forward; Phillips at center; McNamara and Ertel at guards, with Cartmel Comella and Readle in reserve.

A preliminary game will be staged at 7:15, between the Rushville second team and the New Salem team, and this contest should be a good one, as the two teams are expected to be evenly matched.

FRANKLIN WONDERS WIN IN OVERTIME

College Basketeers Defeat Wabash In Second Game Of Season Thursday Night, 27 To 25

SCARLET IN LEAD MOST OF WAY

Franklin, Indiana, February, 9.—Johnny Gant's sensational dribble through the whole Wabash team and his subsequent field goal in an overtime period gave Franklin a 27 to 25 victory over the Little Giants here Thursday. The game from the start was the most furiously contested and most thrilling in the memory of the oldest fan present and, except for the early stages the Scarlet gained a comfortable lead, there was little advantage one way or the other.

Wabash led at the end of the first half, 13 to 11, and maintained a slight advantage until within less than two minutes of the finish, when Fuzzy Vandiver came to the rescue with a field goal to tie the count at 23 all. In the overtime period that followed Vandiver converted Thompson's personal foul into two points and Gant reeled off his dribble for the field goal that won the game. Adam counted twice from the foul line in this period, but more points were not forthcoming and Wabash tasted defeat for the second time this season at the hands of the Baptists.

MITCHELL NOT TO BLAME

George Mitchell, custodian of the court house, stated today that although he was responsible for what transpired at the court house, it was his assistant, Harvey Pruitt, who left the water turned on in the boiler of the heating plant Wednesday night. The basement was flooded with water and there was no heat in the court house until Thursday after-noon.

Quick Relief from Coughs and Colds

It Is Exceedingly Dangerous To Let Coughs and Colds Develop. Easy To Check Them.

This time tested and reliable home-made remedy will bring quick relief from hoarseness, coughs and colds. It is pure, wholesome, perfectly harmless and amazingly effective.

Take 1 1/2 lbs. sugar, 1 1/2 pints of water, a large stick of licorice and boil until sugar and licorice are dissolved; then add three tablespoonfuls of Porter's Pain King. This makes one quart of cough syrup and it can be taken a teaspoonful at a time at short intervals until the cough is conquered.

There are other ways of using Porter's Pain King for whooping cough, asthma, croup, sore throat and tonsillitis. Full directions accompany every bottle of Porter's Pain King, sold by druggists everywhere. Satisfaction or money back.

and come prepared to knot a comfort. A short program will be rendered in the afternoon and visitors are invited.

All the arrangements have been completed for the Rebekah county meeting to be held here this evening at the Odd Fellows hall. Emily Wedgewood, State President of the Rebekah Assembly, was to arrive this afternoon from Winchester where she addressed a similar meeting yesterday and will be entertained at the home of Mrs. A. L. Aldridge with a pitch-in dinner. The meeting will convene at 7:00 p. m. The degree will be conferred by the staff of Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Praether entertained the Idle-Wile club Wednesday evening at their home in Falmouth. The evening was enjoyed with playing games and with euchre. At the close of the card games the hostess served dainty refreshments. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kehl, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Martin, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Walther, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Smelser, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Saxon, Mr. and Mrs. Powell Vickery, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Elwell, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Scholl and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Kehl.

As a result of a contest between the two divisions of the Altar Society of the St. Mary's Catholic church, the second division most graciously entertained the members of the first division, in honor of their victory in the contest, Thursday afternoon with a prettily appointed four o'clock luncheon in the K. of C. hall. The luncheon tables were prettily decorated in hearts and cups in keeping with Valentine Day and covers were laid for eighty guests. The guests enjoyed contests and cards before the luncheon. One of the outstanding features of the afternoon were the costumes of the receiving line. Some of the ladies were dressed to represent Martha Washington and other old time costumes were used. One of the amusing masquerades was the lady dressed to represent Mrs. Probe which was very cleverly carried out.

The following officers for the Altar Society were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Ed Tyner, president; Mrs. Will McCoy, vice-president; Mrs. Ed O'Neil, secretary; and Mrs. John Kelly, treasurer.

Members of the Neighborly club very pleasantly surprised Mr. Margaret English on her birthday anniversary Thursday evening. The home was very prettily decorated with St. Valentine's Day pieces and the place cards also carried out the same idea. The guests spent the evening playing euchre.

Present for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dishinger and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wesner and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pence, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dishinger and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hogle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ira McNamara, Mrs. George Edmondson, Mrs. George Murphy and grand daughter Helen, Walter English and Mrs. Marie Poulting of Connersville.

der of this man's belief is the extent of it. It needs no material props to support it. Moses had demanded credentials before he would carry out the divine commission. Gideon had asked for a sign. Isaiah had not begun his work until the heavenly vision had been vouchsafed him. Saul of Tarsus continued as a rebel against the Truth until his experience on the Damascus highway but this stranger says 'I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof, only speak the word and my servant shall be healed.'

'But to most of us the wonders of belief are not comparable to the wonders of unbelief. At the close of his first year of public ministry, the Master comes back to his boyhood home, the village of Nazareth of Galilee and there he is met with nothing but jeers and opposition. And we read, 'He wondered at their unbelief.' And such wonder was natural. They had the story of his birth, the coming of the shepherds, the worship of the wise men, the baptism by John at Jordan, the miracles even to the arising of the daughter Jairus. But if they had reason to believe with one year of his ministry behind, what of the twentieth century world with nineteen hundred years of his reign already passed into history.

'But the witness of the past is not nearly so great as that of the present and to most of us one of the great wonders of unbelief is how men can see the continual miracles of remade lives and renewed hopes and still be unbelieving. 'And the last great wonder of unbelief is how any man can follow it when it holds no substitute for the instinctive hope which man would place in the future life.'

Skin Ablaze with Eczema

Constant Itching Almost Unbearable!

We know there is one thing that stops eczema, and that is more red-blood-cells! S. S. S. builds them by the million! You can increase your red-blood cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! We also know that night follows day. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought about it! Skin eruptions, eczema with all its fiery, skin-digging torture and its soul-tearing, unreachable itching, pimples, blackheads and boils, they all pack up and go, when the tide of blood-cells begins to roll in! Blood-cells are the fighting-giants of nature! S. S. S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1826! S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-cell builders, blood-cleansers and body builders known to us mortals! When you put these facts together, then to continue to have eczema and skin eruptions looks more like a sin than a disease. Mrs. Arthur N. Smith, Pearl St., Newark, Ohio, writes:

'My little girl had a very bad case of eczema. She began taking S. S. S. and is well now. I thank you very much. I tell my friends what a good medicine it is. I cannot talk too much about it, for I know it is O. K.'

Here is your opportunity. S. S. S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S. S. S. does build red-blood-cells, it rouses rheumatism, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are run-down. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

S.S.S. makes you feel like yourself again

35 NATIONS WILL ATTEND COUNCIL

Quinquennial of International Council of Women to be Held in U. S. During Summer of 1925

COUNCIL FORMED IN 1888

Prominent Among Subjects of Study and Consideration Will be Permanent Peace and Arbitration

(By United Press)

Philadelphia, Feb. 9.—The Quinquennial of the International Council of Women, is to be held in this country, probably at Washington, during the early summer of 1925, according to Mrs. Nathaniel E. Harris, vice president of the National Council of Women and chairman of the Quinquennial Committee.

The International Council of Women is a Federation of National Councils of Women in thirty-five countries, for the promotion of unity and mutual understanding between all associations of women working for the common welfare of humanity.

It was formed in Washington in 1888 and, after the World's Fair at Chicago in 1893, the Council spread to Europe. The last Quinquennial was held in Kristiana, Norway in June, 1920.

Delegates from the following countries will attend the Quinquennial in Washington: Canada, Sweden, Great Britain, Ireland, Denmark, Holland, Australia, New Zealand, Italy, France, Argentina, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Norway, Belgium, Greece, Jugo-Slavia, Finland, South Africa, Portugal, Uruguay, Ukraine, Iceland, Russia, Mexico, Romania, Chile, Estonia, Poland, China, Turkey, Latvia and Germany.

"It is not possible at this early date to estimate the number of delegates and visitors we may expect to come to our Quinquennial, as each National Council is entitled to ten delegates and ten alternates, while all visitors are also welcome," Mrs. Harris told the United Press.

"The depreciation in exchange, unless righted, will possibly have an effect upon those countries impoverished by the war. Yet a splendid interest exists and we have every reason to expect a large number of delegates."

"Prominent among the subjects of study and consideration by the delegates will be those of permanent peace and international arbitration. These two questions will provide an important part of our program along with equal moral standard for men and women, public health, education, emigration, immigration, the profession and industrial position of women and child welfare."

"Many of us will meet for the first time in 1925 as full citizens, with all the responsibilities, as well as all the privileges of citizenship, and it is for us to prove that it was worth while for the world to have made her women citizens and to have called them to her aid.

KING'S SECOND SON AND FIANCEE

DUKE OF YORK AND HIS BETROTHED

Photo—passed upon by the Duke and just received from England—is the first taken of H. R. H. The Duke of York, and his fiancée, Lady Elisabeth Bowes-Lyon, since the recent announcement of their betrothal—and announcement which followed a London daily's story that Lady Elisabeth was to become the bride of the Prince of Wales. The Duke, Prince Albert Frederick Arthur George, is the second son of King George and Queen Mary and is 27 years of age, having been born December 14, 1895. His fiancée, Lady Elisabeth Angela Marguerite Bowes-Lyon, is the youngest and only unmarried daughter of the 14th Earl of Strathmore and Kinghorne, Lord Lieutenant of Forfarshire and Premier Peer of Scotland. The wedding is to take place, it is understood, some time before the end of next April and probably will be at Glamis Castle, principal Scottish country seat of the Earl. This would be but one more in a long string of historic occurrences at Glamis which is a very old and beautiful castle and was mentioned by Shakespeare in "Macbeth".

"The greatest opportunity lies before the women of America, that of really serving the women of the world and, through the women, all humanity."

The National Council of Women of the United States was founded by Susan B. Anthony in 1893. It is composed of thirty-eight of the foremost national organizations of women in the United States, having an aggregate membership of 11,000,000 women. Among these societies are the National League of Women Voters, General Federation of Women's Clubs, Young Women's Christian Associations, Women's Christian Temperance Union, Council of Jewish Women, National Congress of Mothers and Parent Teachers' Association, National Women's Relief Corps, American Association of University Women, Ladies of the G. A. R., Ladies of the Maccabees, Medical Women's National Association and others equally important.

"The Council serves as a clearing house for all these organizations," said Mrs. Harris. "It aims to initiate and stress only such national plans as are not undertaken by any constituent organization. Its attainments, however, are the sum total of all the work and all the attainments of all the organizations within the Council."

"Perhaps it is not generally realized that the women workers for social welfare all over the world have already, for many years, been linked together in a League of Nations under a banner which if carried to victory would transform all international relations."

is a blessing to humanity.
It relieves Constipation
because it is ALL BRAN!

Kellogg's Bran every day is permanently relieving thousands of constipation sufferers throughout the world. No other food in history has done so much to give back health to men, women and children. IT IS SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED TO HELP SUFFERING HUMANITY AND IT WILL DO THAT AS NO OTHER FOOD CAN! Physicians universally are endorsing Kellogg's Bran because it acts naturally and positively, and because it frees sufferers from the habit-dangers of drastic cathartics.

Kellogg's Bran has won national recommendation because it is so delicious aside from its regulatory value. Do not confuse Kellogg's with common brans which are unpalatable and hard to swallow. You will relish the nut-like flavor of Kellogg's Bran; it adds greatly to the enjoyment of hot or cold cereals!

Eat Kellogg's as a cereal or sprinkle it over your favorite hot or cold cereal. Another popular way to serve it is to cook it with hot cereals. In preparation, add two tablespoonfuls of bran for each person when the cereal is cooked. You'll like it with hot milk! Kellogg's Bran makes wonderful cookies, raisin bread, pancakes, etc. Recipes on every package.

To win permanent relief it is only necessary to eat Kellogg's Bran regularly and to be certain to eat at least two tablespoonfuls each day; in chronic cases, with each meal.

The relief Kellogg's Bran gives, as a natural bowel agent, is wonderful. Without the slightest distress it sweeps, cleans and purifies, ridding the system of toxic poisons and warding off some of the most terrifying diseases to which human beings are heir.

Don't delay this natural relief; give your family the benefit of this message of health—this great blessing to humanity! Kellogg's Bran is served in individual packages by leading hotels and clubs. Ask for it at your restaurant. All grocers.

HOW TO USE SEED CATALOGS

The most exciting moment in fire-side gardening is the arrival of the new seed catalogs and a hasty glance at the new plants in the vegetable and flower world which are offered. We are in the period of scientific development of the hybridizer's art, and growers in the United States are no longer depending entirely upon Europe for their novelties.

The modern seed catalog has developed into a reference work. They have been so improved that the description of their wares are accurate cultural directions are exact, and they are filled with valuable information as well as price lists. Many a valuable gardening hint may be secured by careful study of the seed or plant catalog.

In ordering seeds it is best not to depend to much on novelties. Try a few each year, but place your main dependence on reliable and well-tried varieties.

Planting dates and cultural methods necessarily vary with the latitude in our great country. A catalog may be published in New York, Philadelphia, Chicago or San Francisco, and circulated in every state in the Union, but it would be quite impossible for explicit directions to be given as to the planting dates and cultural methods for every state in which it was circulated. It is usual, therefore, for the instructions in the catalog to be given in somewhat general terms, and where dates are used they apply to the latitude in which the city of publication is located, and are subject to correction elsewhere. The gardener will soon learn how to do this, and will always supplement the catalog instructions by information from local gardeners and the results of his own experience.

To some extent variations in climate affects the character of many varieties of vegetables. This is especially true of California and the South; and should be taken into consideration in selecting types. Varieties which are successfully grown in your neighborhood will usually be safest to depend upon, though enterprising gardeners will always seek to enlarge this list by trying out new kinds and recording their results.

AGAINST CHANGING ATTENDANCE LAW

Women of State Are up in Arms Over Bills Abolishing Attendance Officer and Amending Law

PREVENTATIVE MEASURE

Women's League Preparing Bill to Give Women Equal Representation in Political Parties

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 9.—Women of Indiana are up in arms against abolishment of the office of state school attendance officer and amendment of the school attendance law as proposed in bills introduced in the legislature.

This was the statement of Mrs. Walter S. Greenough, president of the Indiana League of Women Voters today.

The attendance division of the state department of public instruction was created by the 1921 session of the legislature which passed a bill drafted by the league, Mrs. Greenough said.

"It is one of the league's preventative measures, which is has originated," she said. "The attendance division has caused a decrease in the number of confinements to children's correctional institutions."

"There have been fewer commitments to correctional institutions for children this year than any other year. The state stands high as compared with other states in this respect."

"In one county there has been a saving of about $50,000 this year because of the work of the state probation department. At the Indiana Boy's School at Plainfield, there have been fewer inmates due to the activities of this division."

The Indiana League of Woman Voters is back of state acceptance of provisions of the Sheppard-Towner act which was passed by congress in 1920. It has been accepted by Governor McCray preceding the session of the legislature, Mrs. Greenough said. Under this act the division of infant and child hygiene of the state board of health would receive federal aid.

Another bill which was backed by the league has been introduced in the state senate and would change the method of voting on constitutional amendments. A majority of the voters casting ballots in the previous general election would adopt an amendment under provisions of the constitution. The proposal now pending is that a majority of those voting on the subject of referendum would be sufficient to carry the question.

The league is also preparing a bill which would give women equal representation in organization of political parties. Betsy J. Edwards, a member of the league, is studying the laws of other states which would give the women those rights.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our Dear Sister Augusta Robery who passed away February 9, 1922. Sad were the days we saw you suffer. With aching hearts we heard you sigh. We saw you sinking hour by hour, but could not stay deaths awful power. Oh this would be a heaven. Could we hear your voice again We miss your coming footsteps We miss you everywhere Home isn't what it used to be Without you coming there. There is no death the stars go down To shine upon some fairer shore And bright in heaven's jewel crown They shine forever more. There is no death, the leaves may fall And flowers may fade and pass away They only wait through wintry hours The coming of the May. MOTHER and SISTERS 28311

U. S. HAS A BIG LABOR SHORTAGE

Proponents of Less Immigration Restriction Endowed With Finances and Have Political Influence

DIVIDED INTO 3 CLASSES

Sec. Mellon Declares Owing to Restriction on Immigration U. S. Has a Scarcity of Labor

By WILLIAM J. LOSH
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Feb. 9.—With every resource of publicity at their command, backed heavily as to finances, and endowed with not a little political influence, proponents of less immigration restriction are today the most aggressive and determined in the fight to dominate the writing of the nation's immigration policy which Congress is about to undertake.

These advocates of a freer flow of immigration into the United States fall roughly into three classes:

- (1) Employers of labor of all kind.
- (2) Groups and individual who profit by immigration as an institution.
- (3) Church groups, internationalists, and philosophers.

By far the most powerful and important of these are the employers of labor, a group which is made up of employers of cheap unskilled labor and employers of classified agricultural labor. Of these two, the employers of common labor, the manufacturing-industrial class, are the most concerned in the drive to force down our present bars to a flood of foreigners and are the nominal leaders of the flight.

Immigration, this class says, is necessary to afford a ready source of cheap, unskilled labor to industry. It serves as a reservoir into which industry may constantly dip for a supply of men to do the rough work of the country's industry at minimum wages.

Minimum wages, they continue, mean cheaply produced products and a lower cost of living to the nation as a whole.

They claim that "prosperity" is at this very moment being retarded by labor shortages in the country's principal industrial centers.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon is one of the subscribers to this contention. In his recent annual report, the Secretary said: "Owing to the restrictions on immigration and the general resumption of industry, the country is already suffering from a scarcity of labor which is embarrassing some lines of business and leading to higher wage scales, where lower were expected a year ago."

These claims of labor shortages are borne out by figures of the Department of Labor which show a continual decline in the common labor available in the past year and a half.

The immigrant aid societies, immigrant banks and labor bureaus in fact, the whole business structure which the great immigrant movements of pre-war days called into existence are staunch advocates of total relaxation of immigration bans.

Certain churches, with interest in particular corners of the world, advocate the "freedom of America" to the peoples whom they have taken under their wings. The Armenian nation is a case in point. It has been made the protegee of a number of American churches.

April 30 to May 5 Has Been Designated as State Wide Campaign Period for Hospital Fund

IS A TWO MILLION PROJECT

Indianapolis, Feb. 9.—April 30 to May 5 has been set for the general state-wide campaign to finish raising the building fund for the James Whitcomb Riley Hospital for Children under construction here, it was announced today.

The Riley hospital will be a $2,000,000 institution, the gift of the people in memory of the Hoosier poet and for the care and treatment of thousands of sick and crippled Indiana children.

Although no general campaign has been conducted, gifts and pledges are received daily from some part of the state.

Many state, county and local clubs societies and organizations are raising memorial funds for the hospital from within their membership and in recognition of their efforts in behalf of hospital.

"KEEP TO THE RIGHT" ORDER FOR AIRPLANES

Washington, Feb. 9.—Rules of conduct for airplanes were announced today by the department of commerce.

Air traffic regulation prepared by the bureau of standards and the society of automotive engineers follow in part:

Airplanes on landing fields have full right of way over all other traffic. Airplanes landing have right of way over airplanes taking off. And both have right of way over airplanes taxiing along the ground.

Seaplanes maneuvering on the water under their own power are subject to the same traffic rules as ships, but in landing or taking off they have right of way over other craft.

When two planes meet in the air they must turn to the right and not pass each other by diving or rising above.

A machine overtaking another from behind must pass to the right. As between different types of craft the less maneuverable has the right of way, thus airships have right of way over airplanes and balloons have right of way over both.

Formations of several machines travelling together have right of way over single airplanes, but do not have right of way over airships.

Cheap foods are never worth what they cost. They are of no value as tissue builders—they merely fill you up.

Real economy in foods lies in buying goods that have nutritive value and possess a flavor that makes them palatable and enjoyable. There is no waste or extravagance in our groceries, the best foods cost no more than ordinary kinds when bought from us.

LOYALTY is not a one-sided flour. It is made to serve the whole circle of kitchen economy. Try it. We believe that you will find it better than the one you thought best.

We are receiving shipments of oysters every few days, solid pack, no water, sealed containers that guarantee their purity to the consumer.

Some folks have always objected to oleomargarine on account of the fact that it had to be colored. TINTED CHURNOLD removes this objection, no artificial coloring is used, yet the color is practically the same as of creamery butter.

We have just cut another mammoth cheese. Last week we were asked by a salesman to write a letter to a grocer in another city telling him the number of mammoth cheese we sell each winter. The grocer had doubted the salesman's word when he told him; said it couldn't be done. Rush county folks know good cheese when they taste it.

BOOTLEGGER SENT TO THE STATE FARM

Moody Bridgewater, 45, of Ripley Township, Pleads Guilty in Circuit Court

ALSO FINED $100 AND COSTS

Quart of Liquor, Two Empty Four-gallon Jugs and Small Empty Bottles Found

Moody Bridgewater, age 45 years, a resident of Ripley township, was arrested Thursday afternoon after a search of his premises revealed a quart of white mule, and what was said to be additional evidence of bootlegging, and this morning he was arraigned before Judge Sparks, and received a fine of $100 and costs, and a sentence of 60 days at the state farm.

The charge against him was for unlawful possession with the purpose of a sale.

Prosecutor Gates Ketchum received a "tip" from residents in that vicinity, that the man was suspected of supplying the trade in that community, and a search warrant was issued yesterday.

Sheriff Hunt and deputies, Ed Spradling and Russell Glendenning, made the trip to the farm, which is located three miles northwest of Carthage, and near Charlottesville. After a long search, the quart of liquor was found, and other evidence confiscated included two empty four-gallon jugs, a quantity of smaller empty bottles, and a supply of corks.

A portion of the loot was found hidden in the straw stack, according to the officers. The man was placed under arrest and brought to jail late yesterday.

According to the officers, the man had been suspected for several months of dealing in liquor, and the trap was set for him.

The prisoner told the sheriff that he had formerly lived in Hancock county, and had resided in Rush county, on the farm, for only a few months, and that prior to moving to Indiana he had been in a western state.

The fine and costs, amounting to $130, together with the sentence will mean 190 days at the state farm, if it is not paid.

The man is married, and besides the wife, leaves two small children at home.

WITNESSES FATAL FIRE AT WICHITA

Cecil L. Clark, Formerly of This City, Lives Across Street From Getto Building

CLARKS REPORTED MISSING

Cecil L. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Clark and brother of Mrs. Charles Offutt of this city who lives at Wichita, Kansas, resides in an apartment house located directly across the street from the Getto building, which was destroyed by a fire that took a heavy toll of lives.

A man and his wife named Clark were reported missing after the fire and the former Rushville man immediately wired his parents that he was safe, fearing the news would reach them and that they would believe he had been burned in the fire.

Mr. Clark was awakened by the light from the blaze in his room and turned in the alarm. A copy of the Wichita Daily Eagle, received here today, contains a graphic account of the fire given by Mr. Clark, who said that he shall never forget the sight that greeted his eyes as he watched the people trapped on the top floors, try to reach safety.

The first floor of the building was occupied by business establishments and the three upper floors were used as a rooming house.

RUSH COUNTY TO BE REPRESENTED

WILL BE HELD NEXT WEEK

Expected Rush County Will be Awarded a Penant for Showing Made in Seal Sale

The Rush County Tuberculosis association will be represented by Mrs. T. M. Green at the two-day state tuberculosis conference which will be held in Indianapolis at the Lincoln hotel next Tuesday and Wednesday. Miss Anna Bohannon will also likely attend some of if not all of the sessions.

The conference will begin on Tuesday morning with an address by the president, Dr. George T. McCoy of Columbus, who will be followed by Dr. C. H. Good of Huntington, president of the Indiana State Medical association. Penants to those who made good records during the recent Seal Sale will be awarded at this session.

It is expected that the Rush county association will be awarded a penant, although no word has been received here to that effect. The Rush county sale, which was conducted by the Psi Iota Xi sorority, passed the goal of $1,800, which was the largest quota ever apportioned to Rush county.

The chief speakers will be Dr. J. S. Pritchard, of Battle Creek, Michigan, and Dr. E. H. Hayes of Chicago, both well known tuberculosis specialists. The conference will be held under the auspices of the Indiana Tuberculosis Association and Continued on Page Six

Lowell Collyer Suffers Loss Estimated At $150 To Equipment This Morning

COVERED WITH INSURANCE

An explosion in a soft coal heating stove, located in the front room of the Lowell Collyer photograph studio, 241 1/2 North Main street, set fire to the interior of the room this morning shortly before ten o'clock, and damage estimated at $150 resulted.

The studio, which is located above the McIntyre shoe store, was almost instantaneously set on fire when the stove belched forth fire, igniting a large canvass frame, setting fire to the rug and window draperies. Mr. Collyer and Gordon Bennett, his assistant, were in the room at the time but escaped injuries.

The loss is confined to the rug and furnishings, and exposed plates. The finishing department of the studio is located in another room across the hallway. A valuable kodak was removed, and other canvass screens were taken out.

The fire department was called over the telephone, and all three divisions made a quick run, and the fire was extinguished with chemical, which saved further loss from water. Insurance amounting to $1000 is believed to cover Mr. Collyer's loss which he estimated at between $150 and $200.

BELIEF, UNBELIEF WORLD'S GREATEST

SERMON BY W. MCLEAN WORK

Special Meetings at United Presbyterian Church Close Tonight—A Record Crowd

Before the largest crowd which has thus far attended the services at the United Presbyterian Church, the Rev. W. McClean Work of Richmond preached on "The Two Greatest Wonders in the World", Thursday night.

Tonight will be the last of the series of sermons to be preached here by the Richmond pastor and every effort is being made by the local congregation to have a record crowd at the services.

The preacher took two texts in his Thursday night sermon, the first from Matthew 8:10 "And He marvelled and said I have not seen such great faith no not in Israel." The second from Mark 6:6, "And He marvelled at their unbelief." He said the two greatest wonders of the world are belief and unbelief.

"Jesus marvelled", said the speaker, "at the faith of the Roman centurion who came to Him asking his servant be healed. The first wonder of this belief was the source from which it came. It was a man entirely outside the line of the Jewish people, and alien to the tribal promises and covenants of Hebrew. In the second place his belief was wonderful because of the surroundings of the man who expressed the faith. He had been reared in militaristic Rome whose citizens looked upon the commanders of armies as the flower of civilization. He gives it as one of his credentials that he has the power of issuing orders and having them obeyed. And yet he believes in a man who has no man to draw a sword in his defense, no treasury upon which he can levy, no political organization to be summoned to his assistance.

TENTATIVE PLANS FOR SUMMER OUTING

Made at Meeting of Republican Editorial Association Meeting Held Thursday

TO BE HELD AT SOUTH BEND

Tentative plans were made for the summer outing of the Indiana Republican Editorial association, at a meeting of the special committee appointed for the purpose, which was held in Indianapolis Thursday. The meeting was attended by Will O. Feudner of the Daily Republican, who is now secretary of the Indiana association.

The summer outing, which is devoted exclusively to pleasure, will be held at South Bend and Mishawaka, June 7, 8 and 9, and the feature of the program will be a banquet at the Studebaker Corporation plant and an inspection of the plant. Other entertainment will be provided at the Country Club and tentative plans call for a fish fry at St. Joe, Mich., Saturday morning, June 9. Members of the association will also be invited, in all probability, to attend the annual field day exercises at Culver Military academy on Wednesday, June 6, while enroute to South Bend.

George Lindsay of Marion, president of the association, while enroute to Florida in the near future, will stop at Washington to invite Herbert Hoover to make the principal address. At the meeting to arrange the outing, in addition to Mr. Lindsay and Mr. Feudner, were George Elliott of Newcastle, Chester W. Adams of Vincennes, Walter Montgomery of New Albany, Fred Shortemeier of Indianapolis, and Frank J. Green, secretary of the South Bend Chamber of Commerce.

MANY DEAD IN 2 MINE DISASTERS

Explosions at Dawson, N. M., and Vancouver, B. C., Take Heavy Toll of Miners Lives

123 MEN ENTOMBED AT DAWSON

Forty Known Dead at Cumberland Coal Mine on Vancouver Island—28 Bodies Recovered

(By United Press)

Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 9.—Forty are known dead in the explosion in the Cumberland coal mine on Vancouver Island, according to reports reaching Vancouver today.

Rescue workers estimated that probably the dead list would not exceed forty-five. Up to 9:30 a. m. twenty-eight bodies have been recovered. Twelve others were known to have lost their lives, while five additional who were missing were believed dead.

Seventeen other men were believed entombed and little hope was held out that they would be rescued alive. The bodies reported recovered were said to have included 20 whites and 8 Orientals.

The explosion occurred in No. 4 mine of the Canadian Collieries at Cumberland, B. C., just after the night shift had gone on duty.

Owing to poor communications, reports of the disaster and of the progress of rescue work were slow coming in.

Dawson, N. Mex., Feb. 9.—Four bodies had been recovered at 6 a. m. from Phelps-Dodson Dawson mine No. 4, where 123 men were entombed by an explosion late yesterday. Mine officials feared that all had perished.

The bodies recovered were found near the main entrance which had been wrecked by the blast.

Dawson is one of the largest coal mining camps in the west. Four mines were operated in the vicinity of 5,000.

One hundred and fifty rescue workers who toiled through the night were still about a mile from where the other 118 men in the mine were working when the blast wrecked the workings. Rescue workers hoped to reach the spot during the morning.

The one hope of finding the men alive, lay in the possibility that they were able to wall up a room to protect against the deadly gasses which accumulated following the blast.

The ventilation system was re-established during the night and rapidly cleared the air.

Physicians and nurses were rushed here from surrounding towns.

A call was sent to Raton for coffins. Wives and children of the entombed men, mostly foreigners, stood Continued on Page Three

SEN. HILL SERIOUSLY ILL PROTEST IS PUT IN HOUSE JOURNAL

Confined to Room in Claypool, Threatened With Pneumonia

R. H. Hill of Carthage, state senator from Fayette, Rush and Shelby counties, has been confined to his room in the Claypool hotel in Indianapolis all this week, threatened with pneumonia, according to word just received here.

The news of his illness was not known to his friends in Rushville until Thursday when a Rushville man, who was in Indianapolis, learned that Senator Hill was seriously sick and was unable to attend to his duties in the state senate.

RIGHT OF TURKS DISPUTED

American and Allied Governments Notified Harbor is Mined—Warships Afraid to Move

(By United Press)

Constantinople, Feb. 9.—Allied naval officials and the Turkish commander at Smyrna have agreed that status will be maintained until the Turkish right to order foreign warships from the harbor has been settled by diplomatic means, according to dispatches from Smyrna received here late today.

The allied squadron is remaining in the harbor, despite the Turkish order to depart at once.

Notice has been served on the Turkish commander that the British war ships are ready to commence firing if attacked.

The Turks admittedly have mined the harbor so that it would be exceedingly dangerous for the vessels to attempt to move without knowing the location of the mines.

When a demand was made on the Turkish commander that he sweep up these mines, he flatly refused, adding that the allied naval officers would have to hire Turkish pilots to guide them out of the harbor.

According to the best information here the only American war vessel in Smyrna harbor is a destroyer less than 1000 tons.

Washington, Feb. 9.—The American and allied governments have received a warning from Nationalist Turkey that the waters of Smyrna where allied warships have been ordered out of the harbor under a Turkish ultimatum are mined against attack from the sea.

PROTEST IS PUT IN HOUSE JOURNAL

Tactics Of Speaker Raymond Morgan And Republicans Condemned By Democratic Minority

NO OBJECTIONS BY MAJORITY

Democratic Representatives Prepared To Leave Legislature Again If Necessary They Say

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 9.—Tactics of Speaker Raymond Morgan and leaders of the republican majority in railroading amendments to the appropriation bill was in violation of the constitution and conducive to anarchy, the democratic minority of the state house of representatives declared today in a protest read into the records of the house.

With the reading of the protest and its acceptance by Speaker Morgan as part of the journal, the fight which resulted in the democrats bolting the house Thursday afternoon, died down as rapidly as it had arisen. It is expected to flare up again when the appropriation bill comes up for third reading.

The democrats are prepared to leave the legislature if their objections are subjected to the partisan steamroller as they were yesterday when the two million dollar request of Governor McCray for completing the reformatory was cut to $1,500,000.

When the speaker's gavel called the house to order the democrats were in caucus at a hotel planning their next move. No effort was made to convene until 10:20 when the democratic members filed in together.

The protest was framed in the caucus and it was reported they planned to walk out again if tactics of yesterday were resorted to.

"We denounce in unmeasurable terms such high-handed methods and declare that they are destructive of free government and conducive to anarchy," the protest read.

"We deplore such action in the name of the people of the state of Indiana to whom we submit our cause. We register this our solemn protest and ask that shame be entered upon the records of the journal of the house of representatives of the 73rd general assembly."

When minority leader Gottschalk presented the protest, Speaker Morgan averted a continuance of the fight by accepting it with this comment, "You democrats have a right to file a protest."

Routine business proceeded then. The marriage and divorce bill introduced in the house by Elizabeth Rainey, only woman member, was killed today on second reading.

The house voted, 45 to 41, to Continued on Page Six

POSTPONES SCALING WALLS TILL SATURDAY

Jack Williams, "The Human Fly," Calls Off Exhibition On Account Of Small Crowd

WEATHER ALSO UNFAVORABLE

The exhibition of Jack Williams, "The Human Fly," who announced he would scale the walls of the court house Thursday evening, was postponed on account of the condition of the weather and size of the crowd, until Saturday night at seven o'clock.

Williams climbed the walls of the McFarland hotel in Connersville Wednesday night and came here Thursday morning, announcing that he would climb from the ground to the ball on the flag pole atop the courthouse tower last night at seven o'clock. Shortly before seven o'clock rain began to fall and not many people ventured out to witness the exhibition. Williams then decided to postpone the feat until Saturday night, when he hopes the crowd will be larger and the weather more favorable.

The high school band which will receive one-fourth of the proceeds from a collection that will be taken, was on hand last night and played a few selections.

Williams went to Shelbyville today and will climb the walls of a building there tonight.

SEEKS DAUGHTER'S ARREST

Father of Mildred Eric Requests Warrant After Strange Story

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 9.—A warrant for the arrest of Mildred Eric, who claimed she was kidnapped and slashed by three, missing men, was issued by police today on request of the girl's father. Disorderly conduct was charged.

The girl whose body was marked by ten crosses apparently made with a penknife had disappeared when police caught her at a rooming house. The father said Mildred recently had grown beyond his control and he thought by taking court action he would be able to regain his correction over the girl.

Mildred in her story to the physician said she was threatened by a secret organization for giving up the religion in which she was reared.

Champion Skater Entertains

Adelaide D'Vorak, world's champion trick and fancy skater, entertained a large and enthusiastic audience last evening at the Rollo Rink. This diversion put on by the management as a treat for their regular patrons and as a means of enlightening the general public as to the possibilities of roller skating, will be repeated tonight at the dance and Saturday evening between sessions of skating. The candle dance pronounced by all who witnessed it as something entirely new, will be repeated at each performance but the remainder of the program will be different.

TO ORGANIZED SCOUT TROOP

Everybody reads the stories by Albert Payson Terhune in the Saturday evening post. This famous author's works are now being shown in Motion pictures and one of the first companies to secure the rights to these stories have been the W. M. Smith Productions, Inc. "The Lariat Thrower" is the title of the story which originally ran in the Argosy magazine. The Smith Productions Company have reproduced the story with an all star cast, which includes Franklin Farnum, Al Hart, Francis Ford, "Shorty" Hamilton and Peggy O'Day. "The Lariat Thrower" is a story of the new west, however, the story opens in the east, but quickly travels to the great vast spaces. The entire company was transported to Oklahoma, so the proper scenes mentioned in the story could be used. "The Lariat Thrower" will be seen Saturday at the Mystic. The management personally guarantees this picture to be one that will appeal to all of the family.

O ORGANIZED SCOUT TROOP

A Boy Scout troop will be organized in Glenwood next week, and a meeting has been called for next Thursday night, February 15, at the Methodist church in Glenwood. All boys who are interested in the organization are requested to attend the meeting with their parents, and the movement will be explained by Prof. Shockley and Dr. Fekols of Connersville.

More "Cuss Words" Uttered In December Than Other Months

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 9.—More "cuss words" are uttered in December than in any other month of the year, statistics for 1922, in city court here showed today.

Twelve convictions on profanity charges were obtained during December. There were only forty-seven to distribute through the other eleven months or an average of more than four each month.

The statistics show that speeders led a precarious life, with 1,071 convictions on that charge. This was partly due to Mayor Lew Shank's war against speeders.

More convictions were made on the charge of drunkenness than any other. They totalled 1,957. Next came blind tiger convictions totaling 1,766. Blind tiger cases increased toward the last of the year and reached 272 in December.

Only 450 were convicted on charges of gambling.

100 WAYS To Make Money

By BILLY WINNER

If I Were a Printer—

I N addition to regular employes, I would have an ever-ready helper—a quick, silent, workman, tireless, inexhaustible, to perform a hundred duties.

He would be a salesman, a buyer, a trader. He would buy and sell equipment at a profit to me. He would sell my waste paper. He would find me employees. If I needed capital he would get it for me.

He would build up a profitable job printing business for me, spreading far and wide the news that I would print cards and programs and tickets; that I could take care of the many printing jobs that come up in business everywhere.

This reliable helper would be a Republican Want Ad. Other printers are using profitably this far-reaching service to fill countless needs. It is a service that fits all businesses. It would fit mine.

SALVATION—If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.—Romans 10:9.

Mary and Doug

Mary Pickford, and her husband, Douglas Fairbanks, who recently defied the producers of motion pictures and who have declared their intentions of putting on their own productions, presumably to make more money, in view of the fact that they have only a few millions laid by, have gone a step further in their uprising against the powers that be in Hollywood.

Mary has a desire to play Marguerite in "Faust" and folks with a million or two generally have their own way. The critics and the producers whose aim for the motion picture is to make it a distasteful medium of artistic expression, have been aroused to righteous indignation because they think Goethe's drama will be sacrificed to the movie tradition of doing things as they should be done.

Too often the patron of a motion picture theatre goes to a show, based on a famous novel or literary work, with the anticipation of an hour or two of real enjoyment, because of having read the story, only to be keenly disappointed by the distortions and changes of the director to meet the wishes of the stars.

Thus the critics are worried about Mary's forthcoming production of "Faust". She has obtained Equest Lubitsch, famous German director, to produce it and she will write her own version of the drama to make Marguerite a famous role. One critic goes so far as to say he would safely wager that Mary never read "Faust", otherwise she in particular would not attempt to adapt it to her own purpose.

Meantime, demands from admirers that Mary play Juliet in a wonderful motion picture production of "Romeo and Juliet" are swelling, according to the reports from many sources.

The desire to see America's sweetheart as the most famous girl lover of literature apparently crystallized when Mary announced she wanted to play Marguerite in "Faust". A storm of disapproval broke. Mary's worshippers dislike the idea that she might subjugate her charm to a minor role. Scholars and critics will object should Goethe's masterpiece be mangled to make Marguerite a dominating figure.

The New York Daily News editorially appealed to Will H. Hays, suggesting that he intercede with Mary Pickford to appear as Juliet.

"Mary would be adorable as Juliet", declared Ferdinand Earle, internationally famed artist. However he welcomed Miss Pickford as a rival should she compete with his own screen translation of "Faust".

The Chicago Tribune made an editorial plea for "Romeo and Juliet" in the films, and nominates Mary Pickford as the one eminently desirable screen artist for the role. The Tribune further proposed that Douglas Fairbanks play Romeo, and Rodolph Valentino play Mercutio.

"Mary Pickford as Juliet, we hazard the prediction," the editorial says, "would prove an unforgettable memory of a generation of all the people and she would make Shakespeare to us all what he has come to be only a fortunate few, the master magician of the theatre."

It is up to Mary's admirers. If enough of them assure her that they want her as Juliet, she will undoubtedly produce that great love story instead of the ill-chosen "Faust".

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Daily Republican, Feb. 10, 1908
Hon. Francis T. Root, the father of many industries and improvements in the city of Cincinnati, committed suicide in his home at that place today by shooting himself through the temple with a revolver.

Robert, the six year old son of Henry Bausback, who was seriously burned by falling in a tub of boiling water at the home of his uncle, Robert Bausback near Shelbyville, is withstanding the shock occasioned remarkably well for one of such tender years.

Seemingly it was with a premonition of what became a reality hardly an hour afterwards that Dr. O. P. Dillon spoke to a fellow practitioner, Dr. C. H. Parsons, saying he had a constant fear of being run down by a train at the crossing near his home while riding in an automobile heavily curtained and hooded. It was with a shock that the people of this community heard of the sad and untimely death of the doctor yesterday, when he was run down shortly after eleven o'clock at the Main street crossing on the C. H. & D. railroad, by a train and instantly killed.

Mrs. Ella Higgins will entertain the ladies of the W. R. C. Tuesday evening at her home on the corner of Willow and Eighth streets.

Dora Hilligoss is the guest of friends in Kansas.

J. H. Frazee spent Saturday and Sunday at Bloomington visiting his daughter, Miss Florence, who is attending school there.

Ruby Amos, who is studying piano in Indianapolis, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Amos in North Main street.

Dr. Frank M. Sparks is a candidate for delegate to the Republican State convention from Rushville township. Two delegates are to be chosen next Friday afternoon. Other candidates are Albert L. Winship and A. L. Stewart.

W. T. Simpson, L. E. & W. agent, is ill at his home in North Jackson street.

The Young Ladies Missionary Circle of the Main Street Christian church will meet at the home of Miss Nellie Behout at her home in North Main street this evening.

Charles V. Tevis of the Cincinnati Enquirer spent Sunday with his father, Dr. V. W. Tevis, in this city. A feature news article on "Ku Klux Klan, (the night riders) in Kentucky from the pen of Mr. Tevis, appeared last week in Harper's, one of the leading publications in the country.

Income Tax Facts

NO. 8.

A person may receive for his services compensation other than money that is subject to the income tax. The fair market value of the thing taken in payment is the amount to be included as income. For example if a clerk in a grocery store receives as part of his wages groceries or provisions the value of the merchandise must be reported by him as income. Compensation paid an employee of a corporation in shares of stock is to be treated as if the corporation sold the stock for its market value and paid him in cash.

Promissory notes received in payment for services and not merely as security for payment constitute income to the amount of their fair market value. A taxpayer receiving as compensation a note for its face value at maturity, but not bearing interest may treat an income as of the time of receipt the fair discounted value of the note at such time. If the payments are met as they become due, there should be included as income in respect to each such payment so much thereof as represents recovery for the discount deducted.

Board and lodging when furnished as compensation for services must be reported as income. Thus, a hotel clerk who is given a room and meals as part payment for his services must report the fair value of such in his income tax return.

Under regulations of the Public Health Service officers are entitled to quarters, light, and heat, and employees such as attendants, dietitians, interns, nurses and reconstruction aides are entitled to quarters, subsistence, and laundry. The Hodge - Podge
By a Paraphraser with a Soul

There are still a few kings left, but the heirs to the throne seem to get the most publicity.

A New York firm is advertising "rental" of desirable female companions for dinner and the theatre, for lonely men in the metropolis, but nothing is said about who pays for the dinner and theatre tickets.

The European situation remains about the same, which means that nobody knows what it really means.

Since the backdown of the Angora government, we know where that slang phrase "turkey" originated.

The fool needs no advertising.

We don't agree with the critic who says that not all men are grafters because all do not have a chance.

The greatness of the moral victory depends upon the effort it requires.

by thousands are known to exist in this country because they have been relieved from pain and suffering by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Science in surgery and electricity have advanced greatly during the past fifty years; but treatment of disease by old-fashioned root and herb medicines, has never been improved upon. The leader of them all is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which after fifty years of success is today recognized as the standard remedy for female ills and sold everywhere for that purpose. Replies to a questionnaire recently sent out to 50,000 women by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., of Lynn Mass., proved that it benefits 99 out of every 100 women who try it. Isn't this a marvelous record for any medicine? to hold?

Many Important Matches Will Be Staged in Indianapolis During Next Six Months

FIRST SET FOR TUESDAY

Pal Moore Will Meet Bud Taylor In Main Bout—Busy Card Is Being Made Out Now

By HEZE CLARK
(Written for United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 9.—A number of important boxing contests are being planned by the Washington A. C. and the American A. C. to be staged in Indianapolis during the next six months. Steve Harter, is match maker for the Washington A. C. and Nate Farb is match maker for the American A. C.
On February 3, Pal Moore of Memphis will meet Bud Taylor of Terre Haute in the main go of Harter's boxing show at Tomlinson hall here. Two other good bouts are on the card.

Farb's next boxing show will be on February 26. While the complete card has not been announced it is known that Joe Lynch, bantam weight champion of the world, will be the head liner. Farb plans to match the winner of the Moore-Taylor bout with Lynch.

Farb also plans to match Riche Mitchell and Charley White, two lightweight contenders, early in April. He wishes to stage this match at the American Association baseball park soon after the regular ball season starts.

Open air bouts proved popular in Indianapolis last year and attracted large crowds of fans from all parts of the state.

There seems to be a chance that Paycho Villa, flyweight title holder may appear in Indianapolis July 4, meeting Bud Taylor. This match was announced for Milwaukee some weeks ago, but an injury to the champion caused the bout to be postponed.

Louis Lavell, of Anderson, the popular lightweight will be seen in action as soon as his arm has recovered from the injury he sustained in the bout with Johnny Luens. Farb offered Lavell a chance to box in Indianapolis, his opponent being any one of the following: Bud Christiana, K. O. Jeakle or K. O. Mars. The latter is the only lightweight who ever knocked Johnny Kilbane, a featherweight champion of the world, off his feet. He did that in a ball park at Cincinnati.

Fred Wildy, match maker for the Terre Haute Athletic Club, is looking for an opponent for Bud Perrill. The club will stage a boxing show at Terre Haute February 22. Wildy is considering matching Perrill with Paul Mathea of Detroit who is now

Tinkering With Baseball Rules

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 9.—No mounted umpires will be riding around the gardens in the major league baseball parks next season. The possibility of putting the arbiters on steeds hadn't been disclosed until some one advanced the question as to how the umpires could rule on a hit under Ban Johnson's zone system for home runs.

Ban's new ideas about the elimination of the freak home run have been passed up, according to Commissioner Landis, and since they are dead numbers it is not necessary to get out the charts and blue prints and explain how Ban wanted to make a home run what it was when it wasn't.

Briefly it was a proposal to paint lines or zones around the parks. Balls hit between the closest lines would be doubles, etc.

The more that radical proposals are made to change the baseball rules, the more it becomes evident that no changes are needed.

As long as the magnates are building parks with home run fields, it is not consistent to adopt rules to make the clouts harder.

After all, as Commissioner Landis says, it is apparent from the attendance figures that the fans like home runs. The club owners don't care anything about home runs or baseball. They are selling something for profit and if the customers would pay to see Uncle Tom's Cabin every day the mags would buy the hounds and ice.

During the winter meetings, when all kinds of amendments for the present code and new clauses were being discussed, "Cap" Huston, the popular owner of the New York Yankees and one of the best examples in baseball of what most club owners are not, remarked:

"I don't believe in passing any rules that no one intends to observe."

He was talking about raising the player limit to twenty-five.

"What's the use to have any player limit?" he asked. "They all cheat and you got to cheat back if you don't want to get left behind. If we could put a hundred players under option, some of them would sneak in an extra five. If this business has to be cutthroat, it ought to be free-for-all, with everything wild and then no one could howl."

REMOVED TO HOSPITAL

Dr. Emerson Barnum of Manila, who received a serious scalp wound Monday night, when the machine in which he was riding was struck by a train at Manila, was removed to Rushville Thursday night in an ambulance, and will take treatment at the Dr. Sexton hospital. His condition is reported to be satisfactory, but it was decided to move him here, where physicians could attend to him more readily.

Hittin' 'Em & Missin' 'Em

GOSH, WE'D SURE PITY 'EM

Up and at 'em tonight gang. Make every shot ring true. Give Cathedral a good beating, and take your spite out on 'em for all the games you lost this year.

The main trouble with the Rushville high school team is this: when they get a big lead, they don't know whether to keep on going, or slow up, and let the other team catch up. The best policy is to keep goin' after you get started. Set the pace and let the other fellows do the followin'g.

NEW BASKET HITTER—MAYBE

We gotta tip today that Ollie Cartmel, backguard, was making a good forward in practice, and might be used some tonight. Make 'em count Ollie.

IT IS A LUCKY WEEK

The week-end looks like a lucky week for Rushville, as the local teams won 11 out of 13 starts.

MEET NEW SALEM TONIGHT

The Rushville Colts will tackle New Salem tonight in the curtain raiser, and may experience some trouble. The Noble township lads have a fast bunch, and held Moscow to a 25 to 13 game here last Saturday.

Hardwood in the Indianapolis Star, in giving Garfield (Terre Haute) a little puff, says as follows: "Crawfordsville, Rushville, Franklin and Vincennes are next on Garfield's schedule. The Terre Haute boys have lost only one game so far, but have four tough ones ahead." Go after 'em Rushville, and make it a real tough one for 'em.

Only two more home games are left on the Rushville card. Cathedral is here tonight, and then comes the Terre Haute team next Friday.

BASKETBALL GALORE

Two tourneys will hold forth in the county Saturday. Carthage high school is entertaining eight schools, with Manila and Greensburg included. Up at Falmouth, the Fairview Independent team is entertaining with an independent meet, and the Rushville Shamrocks are listed in the drawing.

That game with Newcastle and Connersville for tonight, has been pushed up until February 21. Newcastle plays Knightstown tonight.

TELL IT TO THE HIGH SCHOOL

Dear Hittin' 'em—Will the basketball boys have that word Graham printed on those sweaters by the time Garfield of Terre Haute plays here. Keep boosting for it, and tell the people what a good thing it is. Signed, I. M. Interested. Well Mr. I. M., Hittin' 'em has said much about it, but why don't you speak to 'em about it, and have your friends write us. We will do all we can to put the thing across.

KEEP MAILIN' 'EM TO HITTIN' 'EM

Richmond is still figuring on taking the state tourney. We admit that the Morton high school has a good team, but they haven't played the best ones yet, and the only way to figure their standing is to see how they stack up against real teams. Richmond is somewhat like Elwood. They do a lot of claiming, but have not played anyone yet.

Shelbyville plays at Greensburg tonight. We kinda got an idea that Shelbyville will win. If they don't we wonder what their abbi will be.

THE REFEREE SAID THAT ARLINGTON WON

A perfectly good basketball game gone wrong. The other night the Shelbyville Elks played at Arlington. Arlington said they won, but Shelbyville comes along, and claims the game. They both couldn't win, of course. Hittin' 'em was surprised to think that Shelbyville would actually claim that game. They seem to have some sort of a grudge against Rush county teams. It's funny, figures don't lie, but liars figure.

WE'D CALL THIS A PINK ELEPHANT

Dope this year is a queer animal. Just lookie here: Vincennes only beat Anderson two points; Anderson in turn defeated Marion one point. Then Marion beat Newcastle last week by a seven point margin, while on the night before Rushville swamped Newcastle 13 points. That knocks 'em all cold, and on the "dope" ladder, Rushville ought to rank in first place, putting them several points ahead of Vincennes.

The high school varsity took the Merits down the line Wednesday night to the tune of 64 to 19 in a practice game. If the team shows the same form tonight, they should romp off with Cathedral.

A high school contributor says: "Just wait until the varsity steps out wearing the new service sweaters for this year and more than one may need some colored glasses to withstand the shock that they will receive. The brightest red that can be found is going to be selected for the color."

HERE'S WHAT THEY DID WITH THE CUP

Dear Hittin' 'em—"Apropos your remark that you haven't heard what Milroy did with her up, we crave to say that we straightway built a cupboard for same. Who wouldn't? "We are proud of it too, that is to say, both the cup and cupboard. "We promised to see John Geraghty after Milroy and Webb engaged in deadly battle but didn't feel like hearing the lion in his den. We'll talk it over Saturday, Doctor Geraghty! Signed, R. L. P. Milroy.

CATHEDRAL INVADES
RUSHVILLE TONIGHT

Indianapolis High School Team, Defeated By Locals At Home, Plays This Evening

HAS IMPROVED SINCE THEN

The Cathedral high school of Indianapolis will invade Rushville tonight for a game of basketball with the local team and although Rushville won out over them several weeks ago, by a 3 point margin, yet the contest is expected to be a good one. The Indianapolis team has improved greatly, and has been hitting a fast pace recently.

The visiting team will probably line-up with Kelly and Riley at forwards; Royce at center; Dougherty and Dickie at guards. The other three members of their squad will consist of Costello, McGowan and O'Connor. The Rushville team will probably start with Hilligoss and Newbold at forward; Phillips at center; McNamara and Ertel at guards, with Cartmel Comella and Reade in reserve.

A preliminary game will be staged at 7:15, between the Rushville second team and the New Salem team, and this contest should be a good one, as the two teams are expected to be evenly matched.

FRANKLIN WONDERS
WIN IN OVERTIME

Collegiate Basketball Defeat Wabash In Second Game Of Season Thursday Night, 27 To 25

SCARLET IN LEAD MOST OF WAY

Franklin, Indiana, February, 9.—Johnny Gant's sensational dribble through the whole Wabash team and his subsequent field goal in an overtime period gave Franklin a 27 to 25 victory over the Little Giants here Thursday. The game from the start was the most furiously contested and most thrilling in the memory of the oldest fan present and, except for the early stages the Scarlet gained a comfortable lead, there was little advantage one way or the other.

Wabash led at the end of the first half, 13 to 11, and maintained a slight advantage until within less than two minutes of the finish, when Fuzzy Vandiver came to the rescue with a field goal to tie the count at 23 all. In the overtime period that followed Vandiver converted Thompson's personal foul into two points and Gant reeled off his dribble for the field goal that won the game. Adam counted twice from the foul line in this period, but more points were not forthcoming and Wabash tasted defeat for the second time this season at the hands of the Baptists.

MITCHELL NOT TO BLAME

George Mitchell, custodian of the court house, stated today that although he was responsible for what transpired at the court house, it was his assistant, Harvey Pruitt, who left the water turned on in the boiler of the heating plant Wednesday night. The basement was flooded with water and there was no heat in the court house until Thursday afternoon.

Thursday afternoon with a prettily appointed four o'clock luncheon in the K. of C. hall. The luncheon tables were prettily decorated in hearts and cupids in keeping with Valentine Day and covers were laid for eighty guests. The guests enjoyed contests and cards before the luncheon. One of the outstanding features of the afternoon were the costumes of the receiving line. Some of the ladies were dressed to represent Martha Washington and other old time costumes were used. One of the amusing masquerades was the lady dressed to represent Mrs. Probe which was very cleverly carried out.

The following officers for the Altar Society were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Ed Tyner, president; Mrs. Will McCoy, vice-president; Mrs. Ed O'Neil, secretary; and Mrs. John Kelly, treasurer.

Members of the Neighborly club very pleasantly surprised Mr. Margaret English on her birthday anniversary Thursday evening. The home was very prettily decorated with St. Valentine's Day pieces and the place cards also carried out the same idea. The guests spent the evening playing euchre.

BELIEF, UNBELIEF WORLD'S GREATEST

der of this man's belief is the extent of it. It needs no material props to support it. Moses had demanded credentials before he would carry out the divine commission. Gideon had asked for a sign. Isaiah had not begun his work until the heavenly vision had been vouchsafed him. Saul of Tarsus continued as a rebel against the Truth until his experience on the Damascus highway but this stranger says "I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof, only speak the word and my servant shall be healed."

"But to most of us the wonders of belief, are not comparable to the wonders of unbelief. At the close of his first year of public ministry, the Master comes back to his boyhood home, the village of Nazareth of Galilee and there he is met with nothing but jeers and opposition. And we read, 'He wondered at their unbelief.' And such wonder was natural. They had the story of his birth, the coming of the shepherds, the worship of the wise men, the baptism by John at Jordan, the miracles even to the arising of the daughter Jairus. But if they had reason to believe with one year of his ministry behind, what of the twentieth century world with nineteen hundred years of his reign already passed into history.

"But the witness of the past is not nearly so great as that of the present and to most of us one of the great wonders of unbelief is how men can see the continual miracles of remade lives and renewed hopes and still be unbelieving.

"And the last great wonder of unbelief is how any man can follow it when it holds no substitute for the instinctive hope which man would place in the future life."

35 NATIONS WILL ATTEND COUNCIL

Quinquennial of International Council of Women to be Held in U. S. During Summer of 1925

COUNCIL FORMED IN 1888

Prominent Among Subjects of Study and Consideration Will be Permanent Peace and Arbitration

(By United Press)

Philadelphia, Feb. 9.—The Quinquennial of the International Council of Women, is to be held in this country, probably at Washington, during the early summer of 1925, according to Mrs. Nathaniel E. Harris, vice president of the National Council of Women and chairman of the Quinquennial Committee. The International Council of Women is a Federation of National Councils of Women in thirty-five countries, for the promotion of unity and mutual understanding between all associations of women working for the common welfare of humanity. It was formed in Washington in 1888 and, after the World's Fair at Chicago in 1893, the Council spread to Europe. The last Quinquennial was held in Kristiana, Norway in June, 1920.

Delegates from the following countries will attend the Quinquennial in Washington: Canada, Sweden, Great Britain, Ireland, Denmark, Holland, Australia, New Zealand, Italy, France, Argentina, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Norway, Belgium, Greece, Jugo-Slavia, Finland, South Africa, Portugal, Uruguay, Ukraine, Iceland, Russia, Mexico, Romania, Chile, Estonia, Poland, China, Turkey, Latvia and Germany.

"It is not possible at this early date to estimate the number of delegates and visitors we may expect to come to our Quinquennial, as each National Council is entitled to ten delegates and ten alternates, while all visitors are also welcome," Mrs. Harris told the United Press.

"The depreciation in exchange, unless righted, will possibly have an effect upon those countries impoverished by the war. Yet a splendid interest exists and we have every reason to expect a large number of delegates."

"Prominent among the subjects of study and consideration by the delegates will be those of permanent peace and International arbitration. These two questions will provide an important part of our program along with equal moral standard for men and women, public health, education, emigration, immigration, the profession and industrial position of women and child welfare."

"Many of us will meet for the first time in 1925 as full citizens, with all the responsibilities, as well as all the privileges of citizenship, and it

KING'S SECOND SON AND FIANCEE

DUKE OF YORK AND HIS BETROTHED

Photo—passed upon by the Duke and just received from England—is the first taken of H. R. H. The Duke of York, and his fiancée, Lady Elisabeth Bowes-Lyon, since the recent announcement of their betrothal—and announcement which followed a London daily's story that Lady Elisabeth was to become the bride of the Prince of Wales. The Duke, Prince Albert Frederick Arthur George, is the second son of King George and Queen Mary and is 27 years of age, having been born December 14, 1895. His fiancée, Lady Elisabeth Angela Marguerite Bowes-Lyon, is the youngest and only unmarried daughter of the 14th Earl of Strathmore and Kinghorne, Lord Lieutenant of Forfarshire and Premier Peer of Scotland. The wedding is to take place, it is understood, some time before the end of next April and probably will be at Glamis Castle, principal Scottish country seat of the Earl. This would be but one more in a long string of historic occurrences at Glamis which is a very old and beautiful castle and was mentioned by Shakespeare in "Macbeth".

is for us to prove that it was worth while for the world to have made her women citizens and to have called them to her aid.

"The greatest opportunity lies before the women of America, that of really serving the women of the world and, through the women, all humanity."

The National Council of Women of the United States was founded by Susan B. Anthony in 1893. It is composed of thirty-eight of the foremost national organizations of women in the United States, having an aggregate membership of 11,000,000 women. Among these societies are the National League of Women Voters, General Federation of Women's Clubs, Young Women's Christian Associations, Women's Christian Temperance Union, Council of Jewish Women, National Congress of Mothers and Parent Teachers' Association, National Women's Relief Corps, American Association of University Women, Ladies of the G. A. R., Ladies of the Maccabees, Medical Women's National Association and others equally important.

"The Council serves as a clearing house for all these organizations," said Mrs. Harris. "It aims to initiate and stress only such national plans as are not undertaken by any constituent organization. Its attainments, however, are the sum total of all the work and all the attainments of all the organizations within the Council."

"Perhaps it is not generally realized that the women workers for social welfare all over the world have already, for many years, been linked together in a League of Nations under a banner which if carried to victory would transform all international relations."

is a blessing to humanity.
It relieves Constipation
because it is ALL BRAN!

Kellogg's Bran every day is permanently relieving thousands of constipation sufferers throughout the world. No other food in history has done so much to give back health to men, women and children. IT IS SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED TO HELP SUFFERING HUMANITY AND IT WILL DO THAT AS NO OTHER FOOD CAN! Physicians universally are endorsing Kellogg's Bran because it acts naturally and positively, and because it frees sufferers from the habit-dangers of drastic cathartics.

Kellogg's Bran has won national recommendation because it is so delicious aside from its regulatory value. Do not confuse Kellogg's with common brans which are unpalatable and hard to swallow. You will relish the nut-like flavor of Kellogg's Bran; it adds greatly to the enjoyment of hot or cold cereals!

Eat Kellogg's as a cereal or sprinkle it over your favorite hot or cold cereal. Another popular way to serve it is to cook it with hot cereals. In preparation, add two tablespoonfuls of bran for each person when the cereal is cooked. You'll like it with hot milk! Kellogg's Bran makes wonderful cookies, raisin bread, pancakes, etc. Recipes on every package.

To win permanent relief it is only necessary to eat Kellogg's Bran regularly and to be certain to eat at least two tablespoonfuls each day; in chronic cases, with each meal.

The relief Kellogg's Bran gives, as a natural bowel agent, is wonderful. Without the slightest distress it sweeps, cleans and purifies, ridding the system of toxic poisons and warding off some of the most terrifying diseases to which human beings are heir.

Don't delay this natural relief; give your family the benefit of this message of health—this great blessing to humanity! Kellogg's Bran is served in individual packages by leading hotels and clubs. Ask for it at your restaurant. All grocers.

THE HOME GARDEN

HOW TO USE SEED CATALOGS

The most exciting moment in fire-side gardening is the arrival of the new seed catalogs and a hasty glance at the new plants in the vegetable and flower world which are offered. We are in the period of scientific development of the hybridizer's art, and growers in the United States are no longer depending entirely upon Europe for their novelties.

The modern seed catalog has developed into a reference work. They have been so improved that the description of their wares are accurate cultural directions are exact, and they are filled with valuable information as well as price lists. Many a valuable gardening hint may be secured by careful study of the seed or plant catalog.

In ordering seeds it is best not to depend to much on novelties. Try a few each year, but place your main dependence on reliable and well-tried varieties.

Planting dates and cultural methods necessarily vary with the latitude in our great country. A catalog may be published in New York, Philadelphia, Chicago or San Francisco, and circulated in every state in the Union, but it would be quite impossible for explicit directions to be given as to the planting dates and cultural methods for every state in which it was circulated. It is usual, therefore, for the instructions in the catalog to be given in somewhat general terms, and where dates are used they apply to the latitude in which the city of publication is located, and are subject to correction elsewhere. The gardener will soon learn how to do this, and will always supplement the catalog instructions by information from local gardeners and the results of his own experience.

To some extent variations in climate affects the character of many varieties of vegetables. This is especially true of California and the South; and should be taken into consideration in selecting types. Varieties which are successfully grown in your neighborhood will usually be safest to depend upon, though enterprising gardeners will always seek to enlarge this list by trying out new kinds and recording their results.

AGAINST CHANGING ATTENDANCE LAW

Women of State Are up in Arms Over Bills Abolishing Attendance Officer and Amending Law

PREVENTATIVE MEASURE

Women's League Preparing Bill to Give Women Equal Representation in Political Parties

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 9.—Women of Indiana are up in arms against abolishment of the office of state school attendance officer, and amendment of the school attendance law as proposed in bills introduced in the legislature.

This was the statement of Mrs. Waller S. Greenough, president of the Indiana League of Women Voters today.

The attendance division of the state department of public instruction was created by the 1921 session of the legislature which passed a bill drafted by the league, Mrs. Greenough said.

"It is one of the league's preventative measures, which is has originated," she said. "The attendance division has caused a decrease in the number of confinements to children's correctional institutions.

"There have been fewer commitments to correctional institutions for children this year than any other year. The state stands high as compared with other states in this respect.

"In one county there has been a saving of about $50,000 this year because of the work of the state probation department. At the Indiana Boy's School at Plainfield, there have been fewer inmates due to the activities of this division."

The Indiana League of Woman Voters is back of state acceptance of provisions of the Sheppard-Towner act which was passed by congress in 1920. It has been accepted by Governor McCray preceding the session of the legislature, Mrs. Greenough said. Under this act the division of infant and child hygiene of the state board of health would receive federal aid.

Another bill which was backed by the league has been introduced in the state senate and would change the method of voting on constitutional amendments. A majority of the voters casting ballots in the previous general election would adopt an amendment under provisions of the constitution. The proposal now pending is that a majority of those voting on the subject of referendum would be sufficient to carry the question.

The league is also preparing a bill which would give women equal representation in organization of political parties. Betsy J. Edwards, a member of the league, is studying the laws of other states which would give the women those rights.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our Dear Sister Augusta Robbery who passed away February 9, 1923. Sad were the days we saw you suffer. With aching hearts we heard you sigh. We saw you sinking hour by hour, but could not stay deaths awful power. Oh this would be a heaven. Could we hear your voice again We miss your coming footsteps We miss you everywhere Home isn't what it used to be Without you coming there, There is no death the stars go down To shine upon some fairer shore And bright in heaven's jewel crown They shine forever more. There is no death, the leaves may fall And flowers may fade and pass away They only wait through wintry hours The coming of the May. MOTHER AND SISTERS 28311

U. S. HAS A BIG LABOR SHORTAGE

Proponents of Less Immigration Restriction Endowed With Finances and Have Political Influence

DIVIDED INTO 3 CLASSES

Sec. Mellon Declares Owing to Restriction on Immigration U. S. Has a Scarcity of Labor

By WILLIAM J. LOSH
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Feb. 9.—With every resource of publicity at their command, backed heavily as to finances, and endowed with not a little political influence, proponents of less immigration restriction are today the most aggressive and determined in the fight to dominate the writing of the nation's immigration policy which Congress is about to undertake.

These advocates of a freer flow of immigration into the United States fall roughly into three classes:

- (1) Employers of labor of all kind.
- (2) Groups and individual who profit by immigration as an institution.
- (3) Church groups, internationalists, and philosophers.

By far the most powerful and important of these are the employers of labor, a group which is made up of employers of cheap unskilled labor and employers of classified agricultural labor. Of these two, the employers of common labor, the manufacturing-industrial class, are the most concerned in the drive to force down our present bars to a flood of foreigners and are the nominal leaders of the fight.

Immigration, this class says, is necessary to afford a ready source of cheap, unskilled labor to industry. It serves as a reservoir into which industry may constantly dip for a supply of men to do the rough work of the country's industry at minimum wages.

Minimum wages, they continue, mean cheaply produced products and a lower cost of living to the nation as a whole.

They claim that "prosperity" is at this very moment being retarded by labor shortages in the country's principal industrial centers.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon is one of the subscribers to this contention. In his recent annual report, the Secretary said: "Owing to the restrictions on immigration and the general resumption of industry, the country is already suffering from a scarcity of labor which is embarrassing some lines of business and leading to higher wage scales, where lower were expected a year ago."

These claims of labor shortages are borne out by figures of the Department of Labor which show a continual decline in the common labor available in the past year and a half.

The immigrant aid societies, immigrant banks and labor bureaus in fact, the whole business structure which the great immigrant movements of pre-war days called into existence are staunch advocates of total relaxation of immigration bans.

Certain churches, with interest in particular corners of the world, advocate the "freedom of America" to the peoples whom they have taken under their wings. The Armenian nation is a case in point. It has been made the protegee of a number of American churches.

DATE IS SET FOR FINAL RILEY DRIVE

April 30 to May 5 Has Been Designated as State Wide Campaign Period for Hospital Fund

IS A TWO MILLION PROJECT

Indianapolis, Feb. 9.—April 30 to May 5 has been set for the general state-wide campaign to finish raising the building fund for the James Whitcomb Riley Hospital for Children under construction here, it was announced today.

The Riley hospital will be a $2,000,000 institution, the gift of the people in memory of the Hoosier poet and for the care and treatment of thousands of sick and crippled Indiana children.

Although no general campaign has been conducted, gifts and pledges are received daily from some part of the state.

Many state, county and local clubs, societies and organizations are raising memorial funds for the hospital from within their membership and in recognition of their efforts in behalf of hospital.

"KEEP TO THE RIGHT" ORDER FOR AIRPLANES

Washington, Feb. 9.—Rules of conduct for airplanes were announced today by the department of commerce.

Air traffic regulation prepared by the bureau of standards and the society of automotive engineers follow in part:

Airplanes on landing fields have full right of way over all other traffic. Airplanes landing have right of way over airplanes taking off. And both have right of way over airplanes taxiing along the ground.

Seaplanes maneuvering on the water under their own power are subject to the same traffic rules as ships, but in landing or taking off they have right of way over other craft.

When two planes meet in the air they must turn to the right and not pass each other by diving or rising above.

A machine overtaking another from behind must pass to the right. As between different types of craft the less maneuverable has the right of way, this airships have right of way over airplanes and balloons have right of way over both.

Formations of several machines travelling together have right of way over single airplanes, but do not have right of way over airships.

It's remarkable how ZEPHYR bakings whet appetites

IT MAKES your mouth water to get a whiff of those steaming wholesome bakings made from Zephyr Flour. Healthful, appetizing bread, full of goodly nourishment—rich, delicious cakes, good to the last crumb—luscious, juicy pies! My, what a pleasure it is to bake them with Zephyr.

It may cost a few cents more per sack than ordinary flour but—It's worth the difference

WEEKLY STORE NEWS

From ALLEN'S

Cheap foods are never worth what they cost. They are of no value as tissue builders—they merely fill you up.

Real economy in foods lies in buying goods that have nutritive value and possess a flavor that makes them palatable and enjoyable. There is no waste or extravagance in our groceries, the best foods cost no more than ordinary kinds when bought from us.

LOYALTY is not a one-sided flour. It is made to serve the whole circle of kitchen economy. Try it. We believe that you will find it better than the one you thought best.

We are receiving shipments of oysters every few days, solid pack, no water, sealed containers that guarantee their purity to the consumer.

Some folks have always objected to oleomargarine on account of the fact that it had to be colored. TINTED CHURNOLD removes this objection, no artificial coloring is used, yet the color is practically the same as of creamery butter.

We have just cut another mammoth cheese. Last week we were asked by a salesman to write a letter to a grocer in another city telling him the number of mammoth cheese we sell each winter. The grocer had doubted the salesman's word when he told him; said it couldn't be done. Rush county folks know good cheese when they taste it.
